VirTra Awarded Nearly $6 Million - Firearms Simulator Order from U.S. Federal Government

Tempe, Arizona (September 22, 2014) -- VirTra Systems (OTC Pink: VTSI), a leading provider of use of force training and shooting simulators to military, law enforcement agencies and other organizations, today announced the Company recently received an award from the U.S. Department of Homeland Security totaling $5.96 million.

Ryan Bray, VirTra's Regional Manager, said, "We are proud to add the U.S. Customs and Border Protection to our growing list of customers who've selected VirTra to provide them with the most effective simulator training systems available. The safety of the officers who protect our borders as well as those they encounter on a daily basis is very important to VirTra and we look forward to a long-term relationship with Customs and Border Protection."

The award contains multiple units of VirTra's industry leading V-300™ simulator system. The contract also includes the VirTra V-Author™ software package and other accessories. Multiple systems will be deployed within the Customs and Border Protection network of facilities for training of field agents and officers responsible for the protection of our nation's borders.

Jason Mulcahy, VirTra's General Manager, commented, "VirTra's dedication to enhancing the capabilities of our products to meet the ever-changing real world scenarios for our customers is unequalled in the industry. VirTra's objective is to continue to utilize cutting edge technology coupled with the latest training techniques to prepare for the challenges our customers will face in the field."

Bob Ferris, VirTra's Chief Executive Officer, stated, "We are honored by the contract award to VirTra by U.S. Department of Homeland Security. It is our plan to exceed their expectations and thus further our goal of providing the most effective simulators to an ever growing list of customers."
